Wine Attitude

Sometimes what you've been looking for all your life can be found right under your nose—like the boy-next-door who grows up to be a chiseled hunk or the librarian who lets down her hair and is super-model stunning. Here at Ménage à Trois, we'd like to draw your attention to a spectacular sipper that you may have passed over for something more seemingly glamorous. Our Sauvignon Blanc is fresh and racy in all the right ways, with vivid flavors that awaken your senses and a crisp finish that leaves you refreshed, but thirsty for more. One sip, and you'll be asking, "Where have you been all my life?"

Vineyard and Winemaking

Crafted in a lively, friendly style, this bright beauty mingles grapes from California's Monterey and Delta/Lodi regions, where cooler temperatures allow the fruit to ripen slowly, developing layers of concentrated flavors. Coastal grapes bring vivacious citrus flavors and a mouthwatering acidity to the blend, while Delta grapes contribute luscious notes of tropical fruit and white peaches. To preserve our Sauvignon Blanc's fresh, fruitforward flavors and breezy attitude, our winemakers forego the malolactic process and ferment the juice in stainless steel tanks at cold temperatures.

Tasting Notes

Our Ménage à Trois Sauvignon Blanc is dazzling and bright—the perfect wine for a warm, sunny afternoon spent in the company of someone special. It's positively flirtatious, with vibrant tropical fruit aromas that lead to bursts of lemon, lime and tangerine on the palate, and a crisp, oh-boy-was-that-good finish. It's an invigorating interlude if there ever was one.
